The most popular songs by emerging Canadian artists according to all-format airplay audience impressions measured by Nielsen BDS and digital sales data compiled by Nielsen SoundScan. To qualify for the chart, an artist must a) be Canadian and meet the CRTC A' definition (music or lyrics principally performed by a Canadian artist) and b) the selection must qualify as Canadian content (CanCon). Artists are considered emerging until 12 months after the date their first Canadian Hot 100 charting entry reaches the top 40. Artists that pre-date the Hot 100's June 2007 launch are judged on the historic CRTC regulations for Hit and Non-Hit. Once an artist has a title disqualified on these points, their entire catalogue is disqualified. ● Titles showing an increase in overall points over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. ◆ Indicates Canadian. ©2009 Nielsen Business Media Inc.

TWINS CARMEN AND CAMILLE 'SHINE'

ARTIST SPOTLIGHT
By Paul Tuch
paul.tuch@nielsen.com

Sister act Carmen and Camille are picking up strong multiformat airplay across the country with their new single "Shine 4U." The song is bubbling under at Canada CHR/Top 40 and Canada Hot AC and on the Emerging Canadian Artists chart.

The Vancouver-based twins began their singing career with their own "rec-room band" and were reared on classic rock bands like Pink Floyd and Led Zeppelin. Since then, their influences have expanded to include acts like Sheryl Crow and No Doubt.

Their debut album, "Two," was released in 2006, and several of its songs were featured on the MTV show "The Hills." Since then, they have played shows throughout North America, Europe and the Middle East as well as being showcased on MTV and YTV. Earlier this year, Carmen and Camille were invited to record on the John Lennon Educational Tour Bus, where they recorded a cover of Led Zeppelin's "Battle of Evermore."

Sister, sister.

Their new single, "Shine 4U," was initially released as part of a remix contest on the site Indaba-Music.com, and has recently led to the duo being named the CHUM Emerging Artist of the Month.

Carmen and Camille split their time between Vancouver and Los Angeles, working on new songs. They've just returned from a tour of the United Kingdom.
